Koperasi Permasaran Koerintji Barokah Bersama (Koerintji Barokah) was established in 2017. Koerintji Barokah has gained export license since 2019. The cooperative membership consists of farmers in three sub-districts in Kerinci who are committed to adopting sustainable coffee farming practices. Coffee grown by farmers of Koerintji Barokah in the peripheral part of Kerinci Seblat National Park contributes not only to income, but also plays an important role to protect the forest ecosystem. Koerintji Barokah labels its coffee as PES (Payment for Ecosystem Services) coffee. 2022 is the first year of Progreso support to the cooperative with financial assistance and technical assistance.
